BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT

The trial of the contested will of William Fitzgerald, which occupied the time of the Court for three days, was ended late Friday afternoon, when the jury returned a verdict, setting aside the last will and testament of the deceased, declaring the testator was mentally incapable of making a will. The last will made by Mr. Fitzgerald cut out the heirs of his brother. The verdict sustains the first will, which included all the heirs. Eleven members of the jury signed the verdict. The estate of Mr. Fitzgerald was appraised at $62,000. Following the instructions given to the jury by Judge Stout arguments were made in the case by Robert C. Talbot, of Paris, for the propounders of the will, and by Senator A. B. Byron, of Falmouth, for the contestants.

The three-weeks' term of the Bourbon Circuit Court closed Saturday. Sentences were pronounced upon the following prisoners, convicted at this term: Oscar Johnson, murderer, life term in Frankfort Reformatory; A. J. Evans, colored, grand larceny, one year; Sylvester Anderson, colored, two charges of forgery, seven years; Emma Hamilton, colored, forgery, two years; Emma Jones, colored, receiving stolen property, one year; Bessie Dorsey and Maggie Brooks, colored, forgery, sentenced to four years each in the State Reform School at Glendale. In the cases of these two colored girls, who were only fourteen years old, Judge Stout took occasion to call attention of the convicted persons, to the folly of taking risk they had for such small sums, much less than they could make in a month by honest labor, and advised them to ponder over it during their incarceration and resolve that they would lead honest lives in the future.

In the Fitzgerald will case a motion by the propounders of the will for a new trial was overruled by the Court. A stay of judgment was granted pending an appeal to the Court of Appeals, which is being prepared by the attorneys.

FRANKFORT DEFEATS PARIS

The Paris High School football team met defeat last week, by the Frankfort High School team on the Frankfort grounds. The game was anybody's from the beginning to the last five minutes of play, when Collins, Frankfort's right-half, caught a Paris punt on his own thirty-five yard line, and ran the entire length of the field for a touchdown. McClintock made the first touchdown for Paris in the third quarter, catching a forward pass behind the Frankfort goal, which was hurled to him from the seven-yard line. Adams and McClintock starred for the Paris team.

Every time capital and labor get into a wrangle the public sighs and reaches for its purse.

CLOTHING WANTED FOR CHILDREN OF POOR

Truly has it been written, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." But the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League, through its Visiting Nurse, Mrs. Harriet Minaker, is willing that both giving and receiving should be called blessed. The League, through Mrs. Minaker, is making an urgent appeal to the people of Paris and Bourbon county, for a supply of clothing for the children of poor and almost destitute families in the city and county. Mrs. Minaker has spent some time in locating these unfortunate, and finds there is great need of proper clothing for them.

Have you, some time when in a generous mood, seen some poorly dressed children on the streets during cold weather? Has your heart ever prompted you to forget your own comfort and try to relieve some of the destitution and distress among these unfortunate children? Do you run true to form when generosity and a helping hand are needed. Then help the League, whose only object is the relief of suffering and distress, and the thanks of unknown recipients may yet prove a blessing in disguise to you. Clothing, shoes and hats are needed for the children and for adults, also. Will you help the League in this good work, Notify Mrs. Minaker.

BOURBON COUNTY SURVEY

For the past two years Bourbon county teachers have put forth a united effort to lead the State in the number of eighth grade graduates. And while we have made rapid gain each year we still occupy third or fourth place. A more thorough and determined effort will be made this year than ever before and we feel encouraged to believe that we can succeed in overcoming the lead of Jefferson, Fayette and Christian counties this year. We ask every parent and every teacher in the county to help us reach the goal for which we have worked during the past two years.

If you have a child in the eighth grade in your school or in your home see that he or she takes the Kentucky State Examination for High School entrance in January or May. LEE KIRKPATRICK

MATRIMONIAL.

ROSEBERRY METCALFE

The marriage of Miss Carolyn Roseberry, daughter of Mr. John Roseberry, and Mr. James G. Metcalfe, both of Paris, was quietly solemnized in Lexington, Saturday afternoon, of the officiating minister, Rev. Dr. Benjamin Jay Bush, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church. Securing their marriage license in Paris, Mr. Metcalfe and Miss Roseberry, accompanied by Mr. Hiram Roseberry, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Roseberry, motored to Lexington, where the ceremony was performed. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Roseberry, Mrs. Oscar T. Hinton, of Paris, and Miss Erna Watson, member of the Hamilton College faculty, and one of the bride's most devoted friends.

The bride wore her traveling gown of brown cloth, with pretty hat and a corsage bouquet of Opheelia roses and stevia. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe left over the Chesapeake & Ohio road for a visit to the groom's relatives in New York City.

The bride is one of the belles of the Bluegrass region, and is a handsome brunette, whose vivacious charms have made her very popular throughout Central Kentucky. During the war she was very active in Red Cross and other patriotic work, and has taken a leading part in church and civic activities as well as in the social life of Paris and Bourbon county, and in the surrounding towns. She is a graduate of Hamilton College, and a member of the Chi Omega fraternity. She is the only daughter of Mr. John Roseberry, retired farmer, now residing in Paris.

Mr. Metcalfe is a son of the late Mr. James G. Metcalfe, who for several years prior to his death was Superintendent of the entire system of the Louisville & Nashville. He has been connected with the Louisville & Nashville at this point for several years, and at present occupies the position of Assistant Superintendent of the Kentucky Division, with headquarters at Paris. He is a native of Louisville, and a graduate of Yale University and the Boston School of Technology. He was in the world war service in France, with the rank of Captain of Engineers. He is very popular among his railroad associates and is prominent in social circles.

LUND-ELDER.

A wedding that proved of great interest to friends of the groom in this city, took place last Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, in Long Branch, New Jersey. The principals in the event were Lieut. Eugene V. Elder, formerly of Paris, and Miss Gladys Lund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis E. Lund, of Long Branch. The wedding was quietly celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, on Longbranch Avenue, in their home town, in the presence of members of the family and a few intimate friends.

After the ceremony the members of the bridal party were served a wedding dinner. Following the receipt of congratulations and good wishes from those assembled at the wedding feast, Lieut. and Mrs. Elder left for a honeymoon trip to Washington, Atlantic City, New York, and other points in the East. They will be "at home" after January 1, 1921, at their home on Longbranch Avenue.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Elder, and brother of Misses Rosina and Ruby Elder and Thomas Elder, all of this city. He is a graduate of the Paris High School, where he won high honors in his class, and later of the University of Kentucky, where he also took high honors. He has been in the army service for several years, being stationed at Camp Vail, in New Jersey. Very recently he passed a successful examination for service in the regular army and has received his commission, being assigned to Camp Vail. He is a gentleman of the highest integrity, of a pleasing and engaging personality, with a host of friends here who wish him and his bonnie bride all happiness in the years to come.

Friends and relatives in Paris have received the following announcement cards: "Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lund announce the marriage of their daughter, Gladys, and Lieutenant Eugene V. Elder, on Thursday, the twenty-fifth of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty, Long Branch, New Jersey. At Home after January 1, Longbranch Avenue, Long Branch, New Jersey."

HUFFMAN MURPHY

The marriage of Mr. Ray Murphy and Miss Ruby Huffman, both of Lexington, was celebrated last week at the home of Mr. W. H. Piper, on the Lexington pike, near Hutchison. The ceremony being performed by Eld. Mark Collins, of Lexington. Following the wedding the young couple left for a short honeymoon trip. They have returned and are residing at the home of the groom in Lexington.

Mr. Murphy is connected with the undertaking firm of Chas. Baker & Co., in Lexington. The bride is a niece of Sherman H. Stivers, of Paris, and since the death of her parents, has been a member of the family. During her residence in Paris prior to removal to Lexington she won a

BOURBON COUNTY'S OLDEST CITIZEN DEAD

Mary Ann Kelly, said to have been the oldest person in Bourbon county, died Saturday morning at her home in Ruckerville, near Paris, following an illness of several weeks from the infirmities of age. According to well-authenticated records, "Aunt Ann," by which name she was familiarly known to nearly all the citizens of the city and county, was born near Newtown, in Scott county, on March 13, 1817, making her 104 years old on March 13 of the coming year.

During the days of slavery she was the property of Mrs. Hartless, of Scott county. Her mistress died during the cholera plague of 1832, and according to the terms of her will, "Aunt Ann," who was then in her fifteenth year, was restored to her freedom. At the close of the Civil War she moved to Paris, where she has since resided.

Up to a year ago she was in almost perfect health and was in full possession of all her faculties. Her white neighbors frequently gathered around her fireside and listened attentively to her interesting stories of almost a century ago. She would tell of the Indian wars of those days and possessed a number of highly prized Indian relics. The one event she most appreciated happened two years ago when Miss Lucy Simms, of Paris, who for many years had taken a deep interest in the old woman, presented her on her 103rd birthday with a mammoth cake, on which were 103 miniature candles. For sixty-five years "Aunt Ann" operated a spinning wheel and rag carpet loom, her products being eagerly sought for. For almost three-quarters of a century she smoked a pipe, and said that in her later years it was a great solace.

She is survived by two children, Richard Kelly and Fiedra Smoot. The former is in his eighty-second year, and until a few years ago, conducted a grocery in Ruckerville. A grandson, Thos. Kelly, also survives her. Richard Kelly, the surviving son, is a remarkable man. Without any education or any other knowledge than that he gathered through observation and from the old blue-backed spelling book, he amassed a small fortune, his holdings of real estate to-day being valued at $30,000. He never entered a saloon in his life, never swore and oath, never took a drink of intoxicating liquor, never used tobacco in any form and owes no man anything.

COMMERCIAL CLUB'S "TRADE-AT-HOME" CAMPAIGN

A committee of Paris retailers is all set to launch the big "trade-at-home" campaign, which will last throughout the holiday season. At a meeting last night in the Commercial Club office the committee outlined the plans for putting before the people the necessity of buying their goods in Paris. If business conditions are to be improved here, many features, including a big window display contest, in which most of the merchants will be entered, and an intensive advertising campaign, marked the meeting. A committee to decide on a credit rating system for local stores also met last night and decided to get a retail credit association in operation soon.

The Board of Directors of the Commercial Club issues the following statement endorsing the "trade-at-home" movement:

"We believe there is not a more important service that the Commercial Club can render the city of Paris at this time than to encourage a loyalty to local business houses. The advance of Paris depends largely on the amount of business that is transacted here. The more business, the better the town. Paris does not have a large trading radius to draw from, therefore to improve business conditions we must increase the amount of business within this radius. This can be done if the people will be loyal to their home stores."

"Paris business houses handle practically all standard products that are on the market to-day. It is, indeed, a rare occasion when it is actually necessary or even profitable to trade outside of Paris. We feel that it is the duty of every citizen to buy his goods in his own community when it is possible to do so—to give the home merchant the first chance at his dollar. Every dollar that stays in Paris is benefiting Paris. Every dollar that goes out of Paris is benefiting some other city. "The approaching holiday season will give the people the opportunity of proving their loyalty to the community by buying their goods at home. Let us make Paris a better business town by boosting local merchants. It is this spirit of loyalty to your own town, to your own friends and neighbors—this spirit of co-operation—that will give rise to a bigger and busier city and make your own community a better place to live in."

OUTFITTERS TO MEN

PLEASE PUT IT ON THE FRONT PAGE.

This is just a little message to the friends who ask us to "please put this item on the front page." Sometimes this friend is a man, sometimes a woman, and even the young people are getting the habit. It's always a good indication when such a request is made. It means that the writer is interested in his or her subject. It shows appreciation of position in a newspaper, and a modest desire to accept the best.

Sometimes, however, it might be added, the choice is unwise. There are news features which are expected on the front page, and there are others, particularly in THE NEWS, that are not expected on that page, but have their own positions on other pages.

Some of these friends who make these requests are some of the very best people in Paris. Some of them are the very best housekeepers in the city. They would "throw a fit" if someone left the dishpan in the living room. They would have another fit if they did not find the dishpan in the kitchen, where it belongs.

We in the printshops are a little bit the same way. We have a page for display news, another for locals, personals, church notes, another for general matter, and others for other things. Yet sometimes we have to spread the local news on other pages, owing to the pressure of advertising, and it reads just as well on those pages as any other. Yes, indeed, now that we all come to think of it, we agree that we don't want everything on the front page, after all.

NEIGHBORS ALL TALK ABOUT IT

Mrs. Shockley Says She Is Not Like Same Woman Since Taking Tanlac

"For the first time in fifteen years I'm enjoying the best of health, and my neighbors are all talking about how well I'm looking," declared Mrs. F. A. Shockley, wife of a well-known engineer on the Pennsylvania Railroad, who lives at 2402 Oliver street, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"Fifteen years ago I began to be troubled with rheumatism in my joints and fingers. My appetite became so poor I didn't relish a thing I ate, and I suffered from headaches and dizziness constantly. My nerves were terribly upset, and at night I was so restless I could scarcely sleep. My feet and limbs swelled up so with rheumatism that they gave me no end of misery, and many times I was unable to do any of my housework at all."

"I saw where Tanlac was helping so many people that I started taking it, and although I've only taken two bottles now, I feel like an entirely different person. My appetite is so splendid that I just want to be eating all the time and I no longer suffer from headaches or dizziness. The rheumatism has entirely disappeared and I never have a pain of any kind. I'm not the least bit nervous and my sleep is sound and refreshing. I'm just feeling fine in every way, and my husband says he never saw such a wonderful change in so short a time in anyone as Tanlac has made in me. I have all the faith in the world in Tanlac, and don't hesitate to recommend it where ever I have the opportunity."

When Eve was brought unto Adam, he became filled with the Holy Spirit, and gave her the most sanctified, the most glorious of appellations. He called her Eve—that is to say, the Mother of All. He did not style her wife, but simply mother—mother of all living creatures. In this consists the glory and the most precious ornament of woman. —Martin Luther.

The plant of the Soaper Planing Mills and Lumber Company, and a half block of buildings which adjoined the yards were destroyed. This concern figures its loss as more than $100,000.

Adjacent buildings which it owned, occupied by the D. E. Belev store, the Green Piano Company, the Kentucky Creamery and the Sunnyside tailor shop was also destroyed, together with a small building owned by Mrs. Mary Powell, and occupied by Dr. Gholson, a colored physician. Belev places his loss on stock of goods at $35,000, with only $5,000 insurance. The losses suffered by other tenants has not yet been appraised. In addition to his loss in pianos, Chester Green lost all his household effects, his family occupying a flat above the store.

The loss of the Soaper Company is complete, prohibitive rates having dissuaded the company from carrying insurance.

MILLERSBURG

Mr. Fred Hill, of Center College, Danville, spent the week end at home.

Mr. Batterton, of Eminence, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. V. Ingels.

Miss Mary McDaniel, who teaches at Cynthiana, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at home.

Mrs. E. M. Ingels left Saturday for a visit to her brother, Mr. John Ross, and family, at Lexington.

THE SICK—Messdames Clara Shanks, Annie Norton and Anna Darnell continue about the same.

Mrs. J. B. Cray returned Saturday after a week's visit to her sister, Mrs. W. F. Judy, at Lexington.

Mrs. Hensley and daughter, Miss Patsy Clay Hensley, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with relatives at Winchester.

Misses Marguerite and Edith Wood spent the Thanksgiving holidays at home. The former is teaching at Sharpburg, the latter at Cynthiana.

Messrs. E. M. Ingels, D. E. Clarke and F. J. Savage, the latter of Paris, left Saturday for a month's hunting and fishing tour in Mississippi. They will spend a part of the time with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clarke.

Mrs. S. C. Bascom and daughter, Miss Sue Bascom, left Friday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Ralph Miller, at Cincinnati. She returned Sunday, accompanied by Mr. Bascom, who has been absent for a month on a hunting and fishing trip in Arkansas.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Clarke, assisted by Messdames Frank Ingels and Green Leer, their nieces, gave a surprise dinner Wednesday, November 24, at the home of this elderly couple, celebrating their Golden Wedding. The table with large yellow chrysanthemums and other decorations in keeping with the occasion was arranged to resemble as nearly as possible the table at the home of Mrs. Ingels' father on the occasion fifty years ago when her parents entertained this couple as bride and groom at a wedding supper.

Only a few of their older relatives were present in addition to the immediate family.

To the strains of "When You and I Were Young Maggie," played by the victrola, the guests entered the dining room, led by the honored couple, where a dinner consisting of all the good things of the season was served. An amusing feature of the meal was the cutting of the "wedding cake," when darning needles, thimbles, coins and rings fell to the lot of unsuspecting applicants for a slice of cake.

Throughout the meal other musical numbers were rendered including, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Mother Machree" and "The Rosary." At its conclusion, Miss Alberta Poffett, the eldest of the eight grandchildren, and as spokesman for them, presented the bride of fifty years with a wedding ring. Following this, Mrs. Jones R. Price, of Escondido, the youngest child of the family, presented the couple in the name of the eight children, with a bag containing fifty dollars in gold pieces, the bag being made of gold-colored satin, a piece of the wedding bonnet of Mrs. Laura Vimont Layson, mother of Mrs. D. E. Clarke.

The afternoon was spent by the older people reviving old memories and reviewing the incidents of the occasion of fifty years ago, which was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke possessed with unusual vigor at the respective ages of seventy-nine and seventy-six years are the parents of eight children, all of whom are living, and eight grandchildren.

Besides the immediate family there were present: Mr. Joseph S. Clarke, of Sharpburg; Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dye, of Ewing; Mrs. William Hutchinson, and daughter, Miss Lyle Hutchinson, of Nepton, Ky.; Mrs. C. S. Ball, of Paris; Mrs. Frank Ingels and Mrs. Green Leer, of near Millersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke are members of two very old families who came to Mason County over a hundred years ago, the one coming from Fluvanna County, Virginia, and the other, the Dye family, from the state of New Jersey, about the same time.

Kentucky was then very young as a state and the elder Mr. Clarke bought at that time from the government a large tract of land extending from what is now Fairview, Fleming County to Mayslick, Mason County, at the sum of $1.25 an acre.

The original Clarke home located near Johnson Bridge on the Maysville and Lexington pike is now owned by B. D. Clarke, of the fourth generation of the pioneer Clarke, thus having been in the possession of this family for over a century this house and another that was burned years ago having sheltered seven generations of the same name. It was planned to have representatives of five generations present at the Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, but illness of some of the parties prevented the carrying out of the plan.

Mr. Clarke is the only surviving member of a family of twelve children.

CANTRELL WARNS TOBACCO GROWERS OF STATE

LEXINGTON, KY., Nov. 29.—That the tobacco growers of Kentucky will get three times as much money for the two hundred million pounds of good tobacco they have raised this year as they will get for the entire crop of three million pounds, if they fail to keep the low grades off the market, was the statement of Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, himself a large land owner and tobacco raiser, on the eve of his departure for Washington to prepare for the coming session in Congress.

Mr. Cantrill has been in Kentucky for the past two weeks, and he has devoted some time to personal investigation of the reports that the tobacco crop is much lighter than last year's, with the result that he has come to the conclusion, he said, that not more than three million pounds had been grown this year, and of this a third is of low grade.

Mr. Cantrill urged the necessity of organization of all the growers, not only in the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association, of which J. W. Newman is the head, but in the Farmers' Union, local unions of which are in nearly every county. Mr. Cantrill said it was the duty and would be greatly to the benefit of the farmers to strengthen their local organizations by joining these farmers' unions, as well as uniting in a general organization, such as the new association.

"When I came to Kentucky two weeks ago," said the Congressman, "I will admit that I was not greatly encouraged over the outlook for prices this fall, but after a careful and painstaking investigation, which has included my own tobacco in Scott county and some of my neighbors in practically all the big counties of Central Kentucky, I am convinced that the yield this year in weight will not exceed the ability of the market to handle, unless the low grades should be dumped on the market, in which case the entire price fabric will totter. For that reason, it is necessary for the growers to organize to keep this low grade tobacco off the market. The manufacturers and buyers for European trade are overstocked with that tobacco. It actually will not pay for the expense of stripping and hauling it, if offered in connection with the better leaf, and can only have the effect of demoralizing the entire market. The growers will suffer no loss, but rather gain largely by holding these low grades at home."

"Europe usually takes this tobacco off our hands, but just now Europe is not able to pay the interest on her debts, and since there is no demand from that source and American manufacturers are overstocked with that class of leaf, it would not pay to strip and haul that kind of tobacco to market. It would be no sacrifice to the grower to hold it off the market and redry it. If it is held off the market, and held generally, that means that not over two hundred million pounds will be marketed and that the growers will get a good price for it, for the manufacturers will not hesitate to buy at good prices if that amount of tobacco is offered, for that amount will be needed by them."

"If Kentucky has to return at any time in the future to the old schedule of prices, it will mean the loss of their farms to many of the growers and the loss of many of the comforts that our children in the burley belt have enjoyed for the past eight or ten years of good prices. I want to urge all the farmers to get together and stick together for the benefit of themselves and for the benefit of all. They had just as well throw their low grade leaf on the ground as to bring it to market. The profit will be about the same. The only way to make such a movement to hold off these low grades a success is to organize and for all who are interested in the tobacco growers, business men and the press included, to impress upon the growers the importance of holding back their low grades until the good tobacco is marketed if not entirely so far as this year's market is concerned."

"The farmers who do market this low grade leaf are not only their own enemies but enemies of their neighbors and the tobacco industry. All they can do by marketing it is to break down the market, which will be the inevitable result of their offering it. No concerted action to withhold this cheap tobacco is possible without thorough organization. If this organization is effected and if the growers will follow the advice of their friends good prices will be paid for what tobacco of the 1920 crop is marketed."

EDITORIAL FLINGS OF THIS

THAT 'EN 'TOTHER

When you feel upon stepping out of doors that you have plunged into a cold bath it is because the percentage of cotton in your all-wool suit of clothes is audaciously high.

Handsome Paris woman says Daddy is washing the dishes nowadays while mamma and the girls go to the movies and the man-of-the-house is preferred by Mrs. Bell, County Attendance Officer.

It used to be possible to get a five-cent loaf of bread from the baker or do five cents worth of loafing at the movie show, but that was when General Sherman's aphorism related to the events of many years ago.

A woman physician says bonbons moderately consumed do women more harm than cigarettes. Hereafter Paris boys who are conservationists may think twice and give the girls a gross of cigarettes instead of a five-pound box of chocolates.

It takes all kinds of people to make the world, is a very true saying. But in making up the world those who persist in annoying their neighbors at the movies by reading the titles of the photoplays cut loud might well be spared in the general scheme of things. One of these atoms of humanity, a sinpering, giggling, gossiping female woman, sat behind a NEWS representative the other night at The Grand, and what she did to murder the English language was sufficient. Not to be able to see is the greatest of deprivations, but there are times when ability to hear heightens our misery. As for instance, this night, when we saw nothing, but could quite plainly follow those who insisted upon reading the titles aloud. They ought to be segregated and set apart in a section to themselves, where they could talk their blasted fool selves to death. They surely give some mortals credit for being able to read the titles when they are thrown on the screen in plain letters.

PARENT FINED

Yantis Guiley, of near Paris, was given a hearing in the County Court before Judge George Batterton on a charge of not sending his children to school regularly, and given a fine of five dollars. The charge against Guiley was preferred by Mrs. Bell, County Attendance Officer.

MORE EVIDENCE HERE OF MILD WINTER.

There is much comment here upon the thin corn husks, and this fact, many state, is indicative of a very mild winter. Men husking corn state that for years they have not seen corn with large stalks and ears of grain provided with such thin husks. Squirrels, too, are said not to be so industrious toward laying in their winter supply of nuts, since they are to be seen helping themselves from trees, it is said, and carry few nuts to their den.

OHIO FUGITIVE ARRESTED HERE

Noah Holt, white, wanted by the authorities of Portsmouth, Ohio, on a charge of being a fugitive from justice, was arrested here by Sheriff Will G. McClintock and Deputy Sheriff R. M. Gilkey, on a warrant sent from Portsmouth. Holt was charged with stealing an automobile and forfeiting his bail bond of $500.

Sheriffs McClintock and Gilkey received information to the effect that Holt was working on the farm of Mrs. Cordelia Offutt, near Hutchinson. Mr. McClintock posted Gilkey at the back door, while he went to the front door of the tenant house where Holt was living, and knocked on the door. Holt endeavored to escape, but ran into the arms of Mr. Gilkey. He was brought to the Paris jail. He agreed to waive the formality of requisition papers. Sheriff Ricken, of Portsmouth, was notified and sent a deputy to Paris, who took Holt back to Portsmouth.

BOURBON MEN TROD "THE HOT SANDS."

The Shriner ceremonial Thursday, in Lexington, when 116 candidates took the work of the Shrine degree, was one of the most important Masonic meetings of the year. Oleika Temple, of Lexington, had been rehearsing the ritual for several weeks, and the impressiveness of the ceremony was pronounced by many of the members to have been remarkable. The candidates assembled at the Masonic Temple on North Broadway at 10:30 o'clock under W. E. Clarke, and at 1:30 o'clock marched to Woodland Auditorium accompanied by the patrol of Oleika Temple and the drum corps. At the Auditorium many Shriners had gathered to witness the work, from points as far away as Louisville, Hazard and Covington.

Following the initiation, the Shrine adjourned to a buffet luncheon and ball at the Phoenix Hotel, which was declared to be one of the most brilliant social events of the season.

The following novices from Bourbon county, "trod the hot sands" at this ceremonial: Frank E. Faulkner, C. T. Hunkle, W. Fred Link. The following Bourbon county visitors were registered: Miss Sue Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. William Shire, Miss Mary A. Hutchcraft, Owen T. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. YOU certainly want to save money, and you would like to have better bakings. Then use Calumet. It's the biggest thing you can do to improve the quality of your bakings—and lower baking costs.

Calumet is made in the largest, most sanitary Baking Powder Factories in the World. No Baking Powder is made under better conditions—none can be better in quality.

It contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by the U. S. Pure Food Authorities. An absolute guarantee that it is pure.

It received highest Awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago — Paris Exposition, Paris, France—positive proof of its superior merit.

It is used by more housewives and domestic scientists than any other brand.

It is sold at a moderate price. All you have to do is to compare costs to determine how much you can save by buying Calumet.

Gluten is the muscle-building part of flour which is of great importance. To be sure you get it in your bakings use plain flour and good baking powder, (not self-rising flour).

Calumet Cream Cake Recipe

USE ROYAL ESTATES

To Supply Pension Fund for Care of Invalid Soldiers.

War Victims to Receive Incomes From All Property Left by the Emperor of Austria

Vienna.—The vast estates of the late Emperor Francis Joseph will be devoted to the pension fund of invalid soldiers under a decision just taken by the cabinet council. Certain castles and dwellings in this city and the nearby suburb of Baden will either be occupied by them or the fund will receive the rentals and other accretments.

Included in the arrangement are the splendid estates of Orth, Voessendorf, Maltighofeu, Poeggstall, Augonten, Laxenburg, Hetzendorf and many others, the decision also covering the Lainz Tiergarten, near Vienna, on which a group of some hundreds of former soldiers recently squatted.

The income of the Prater, Vienna's most famous suburban park with its numerous restaurants and amusement places, is also included. Many of the estates contain model farms and others are under rentals of much value.

The late Emperor Francis Joseph, who died in 1916, bequeathed 60,000,000 crowns from his private fortune to a fund for wounded soldiers, invalids and relatives of men killed in the war. To two daughters and one granddaughter he bequeathed 20,000,000 crowns of his estate to be divided among several other legatees.

It has since been reported that an American-Dutch company has bought the emperor's summer palace at Ischl, in the Tyrol, for hotel purposes. The hunting estates and lodges of the late emperor in the Tyrol were advertised for sale in January last. Francis considered these the finest in Europe.

Clothes and Cleanliness.

It is true that clothes were more picturesque in past ages and that men as well as women gloried in gorgeous apparel. The nobleman was as fond as his "lady love" of rich fabrics and ruffles, and the clasp that held his floating plume to his velvet hat flashed with real gems. But here is where civilization takes a hand. Compare the cleanliness of the men of the past with those of the present. In the Sixteenth century French gentlemen changed their linen once in two weeks, and even at that were deemed recklessly extravagant by the English for so doing.

About the time a fellow gets interested in the girl in a corset ad, along comes a new magazine with a better looking one.

The current for your electric light comes from the same wires that serve many others besides you; water or gas can be furnished you from the same mains that also supply many other customers—

But the telephone, with few exceptions, is an individual service—

The telephone company must furnish and maintain a separate circuit all the way from the telephone exchange to the interior of your home or place of business; must furnish and maintain your telephone instrument and wiring; must maintain a special, separate investment for you alone!

Remember that, Mr. Subscriber, when you consider the cost of installing and maintaining your telephone—and the rate that must be charged you to make that individual service possible.

WESTERN UNION CASE IN SUPREME COURT

The eight year fight between the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company as to the right of the former to use the railroad's right of way for its wires, reached the Supreme Court in the form of an application by the Western Union for a writ of certiorari.

The legal battle was inaugurated in 1912, when the Western Union was ordered to remove its poles and wires from alongside the Louisville & Nashville, on pain of forfeiting them to the railroad. An injunction was obtained by the telegraph company pending condemnation proceedings which resulted in a verdict giving the Western Union use of the right of way on payment of $5,000.

In March, 1916, the Kentucky Legislature passed a law prohibiting such condemnation and the case, being continued, to the appellate division, the injunction was dissolved.

In its brief the Western Union contended that the Kentucky law was unconstitutional.

Invention of Electric Light.

The credit for the basic discovery of the electric light is probably due to Sir Humphry Davy, who in 1810 observed the electric arc and produced incandescence of a fine platinum wire in connection with his experiments with a 2,000-cell battery. In 1862 an arc lamp was installed in the lighthouse at Dungeness. In 1879 the Edison incandescent lamp was exhibited, and in 1882 the Pearl street Edison station in New York was put in service.

"Cloth" From Bark.

In the tropical islands of the Pacific there are several tribes which make use of the bark of a tree as a substitute for fabrics. It is called "tapa" and is obtained by heating the bark and then treating it to a pesty preparation. After the boiling process, the fiber shows a regular overlapping arrangement of the strands like woven material.

GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS NEW JAPANESE TREATY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—At the eleventh hour, when it was believed that the new treaty giving full civil rights to nationals of Japan practically was complete, obstacles have arisen which in all probability not only will prevent it being signed, but will put it in the discard completely, it was learned officially.

Not content with civil rights which the State Department had agreed to grant, the Japanese Government, it is reported, shifted its ground and demanded the right of full citizenship for its nationals.

While this drastic change in attitude could not be confirmed officially, it was said by an eminent diplomat that the principle put forth was such he did not believe the treaty "ever would be signed by either this administration or any other."

It was indicated as highly significant that the hitch in the treaty came immediately after the publication of a dispatch to the London Daily Express from Tokyo, giving the final terms to which the Japanese Government had expressed its willingness to agree.

ENDORSED AT HOME

Such Proof As This Should Convince Any Paris Citizen

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Paris adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it:

Robert Link, proprietor grocery store, 1531 S. Main street, Paris, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be the best kidney medicine I ever used and can't recommend them too highly. My back had given me so end of trouble and there was a steady, dull ache just over my kidneys. My kidneys acted too frequently, too. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time I was completely rid of the trouble."

PREDICTS WEATHER FOR THE COMING YEAR

Gazing into the starry heavens and discovering by means of ancient charts and symbols that Mercury will dominate the year 1921, Reuben H. MacDonald, astrologer, of Binghamton, New York, has made a prediction as to the weather for that period. His conclusion follows:

The weather of 1921 will be disagreeable. January and February will be inclined to be dry, cold and unseasonable. The summer will be wet, hay and grain will not unless given proper attention. The fall will be wet with early frosts. The winter will be one of plenty snow and ice, which is good for the soil. Mice will be very numerous. Better feed a cat than mice. Worms scarce, consequently fish will be scarce and poor in quantity.

In South America.

A visitor to South America, speaking of his observations there, said: "The home life of the people is so full of music that even the 'newsies' sing their wares, and peanuts, and sweets, fresh fruit and cool water are advertised in recitative. Such itinerant artisans as scissors grinders announce their advent by means of a piccolo. The tired workmen still solace their evening hours with the guitar and the phonograph is to be found in the homes of all but the poorest classes."

Human Thermometer.

At the far top of the kiln (at the famous pottery works of King Tschel, China), and in the chimney are holes a foot square, into which a man, who acts as a human thermometer, looks to determine the heat. His method is simple. He spits into the hole, and if the spit turns to steam, the temperature is not sufficient. When the heat is so great that the saliva is shot back at him with a little explosion, everything is all right.—John Knight Shryock in Asia.

DEATHS.

BRECKINRIDGE

Funeral services for Mrs. Madeleine McDowell Breckinridge, wife of Dr. E. C. Breckinridge, editor of The News, who died at her home, 337 Lexington Walk, in Lexington, Thursday morning, were conducted Saturday from Ashland, the home of her children.

Following the services at the family home, which were marked by singing and were conducted by the Rev. R. K. Massie, dean of Christ Church Cathedral, who followed the funeral ritual, burial took place in the McDowell family lot in the Lexington cemetery.

At the home of the latter and at the church place, there gathered to pay a last tribute many men and women who had been associated with Mrs. Breckinridge in her many activities for women suffrage, progress in civic affairs, charity work for the benefit of others, in addition to her personal friends and friends of her family.

The casket was lowered beneath a profusion of beautiful flowers, the floral tributes being in keeping with the other numerous expressions of sorrow, which were received from at home and from a distance.

The pall-bearers were: Thos. A. Combs, Dr. John W. Scott, C. H. Berryman, Dr. George P. Sprague, J. T. Tunis, Dr. E. B. Bradley, E. L. Hutchison and J. Nathan Elliott.

The flag of the Federal building was at half mast Saturday as a tribute to the memory of Mrs. Breckinridge, and at 2:30 o'clock, all cars of the Kentucky Traction and Terminal Company were stopped for one minute as a mark of respect.

WEBB.

Following a long illness of tuberculosis, Mrs. Sarah Parsons Webb, aged fifty, died at eleven o'clock, Sunday morning, at her home on Second street, in this city. Mrs. Webb had been ill for about a year, but had been confined to her bed but a short time before her death.

Mrs. Webb was a daughter of the late Joseph and Lou Fowler Webb, of this county, and wife of Mr. James Webb, who conducts a grocery on Second street. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Mattie Sammons, of Bloomington, Ill., and Mrs. Eliza Scott, of Paris, and two sons, Colonel Webb and Asa Webb, both of Paris. Another son, James Webb, was killed in Paris about a year ago by being electrocuted while at work on a telephone line that has become crossed with a high tension current.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. Arthur Fox, pastor of the Paris Baptist church.
